FROM WASHINGTON.

RESIGNATION OF MESSRS. DEWEESE AND GOLLADAY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The House was considerably surprised to-day when the Speaker had read the resignation of two members, James S. Golladay, a Democratic Representative of the third Kentucky district, and John T. Deweese, a Republican Representative of the fourth district of North Carolina. Mr. Deweese learning that the evidence implicated him in the sale of a cadetship, and that the Committee would probably report to day or to morrow for his expulsion sent in his resignation to the Governor of his State on Friday last, and to the Speaker to-day. This member, it is understood, received five hundred dollars for appointing a cadet from the District of Columbia, but had offered some time since to return the money. The case of Mr. Golladay is quite different. The Committee had come to no conclusion whatever regarding his case, and the evidence so far as taken, did not, members of both parties on the Committee say, implicate him directly as being governed by improper motives or in receiving money.—Mr. G. has simply appeared in the attitude of confessing judgment to the House by so suddenly resigning. He was in the House to day for an hour and wrote his resignation at his desk, apparently on the impulse of the moment, though he informed his counsel this morning that he intended to resign. The latter maintains that no evidence implicating his client had been submitted beyond the fact that the cadet when appointed was not a resident of G's district. The father of the cadet, Haldene by name, testified that his son was appointed by Golladay at his request in 1868, and during the last Congress, after a personal acquaintance, and that he never offered nor agreed to pay to Golladay, directly or indirectly, a cent for the appointment, that none of his family agreed to pay anything, and that no consideration of any kind had passed between them before or since the appointment. The witness said that his boy in jesting might have said that two thousand dollars was paid, but that it was not true, for no amount was ever paid, nor had he ever told the boy that his nomination was purchased. The witness swore to this over and over again, and the cadet, who was examined this afternoon, was unable to testify that money had been paid. The slight acquaintance which existed between Golladay and Haldone, the admission that the cadet was appointed out of the district, and Golladay's resignation are the only circumstance against the latter.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY IN SULLIVAN COUNTY, INDIANA.

One of the most singular and wonderful discoveries of the age was made in the Curryaville coal mines a few days ago. At a depth of 180 feet, while the miners were cutting through a slate stone, they discovered the petrified body of a sea serpent.—We examined this petrifaction, and can say, with truth, that it is the finest specimen we ever saw. Unfortunately it was broken into three pieces, and a piece from near the centre is missing—perhaps thrown out in sliver of stone. A limb had evidently fallen across the serpent, about eight or ten inches from the head, and mashed the part underneath flat, and strange to say, even this thin part was formed into solid stone, and was taken out perfect. The wrinkles in the body of the serpent, in its writhing as if to extricate itself from the stick that fell across it, were as perfect and natural as the day the affair took place. The head is shaped like that of an eel, and the tail, from indications, must have been supplied with a broad fin, or a flat, fleshy substance, as a propeller. The eyes and mouth can be distinctly traced, while the body is covered with small sunken spots, similar to those on a hog skin, though not so small or numerous. This specimen is five feet three inches long, and near ten inches around the largest part of the body. In addition to this most singular curiosity, perfect impressions of leaves, limbs, brush and other samples of vegetation were taken out at this enormous depth. Among these was a beautiful impression of what is familiarly called snake weed, or fern, which grows in almost every valley throughout the western country.

The most singular specimen is yet to be described, and in attempting to communicate the fact to our readers, we feel as though the history of our earth is just as much a mystery to the present generation as it was to those who inhabited before the flood—the "hall having not yet been told." The sole of a shoe, or sandal, was taken out in a complete state of petrifaction. The heel is almost perfect, and the impression of something in the heel resembling tacks or nails, is plain and distinct. This specimen is about eight inches long and to the usual width.

When this discovery is seriously considered in connection with the general formation of the earth for a circumference of between seventy and eighty miles around—there not being a hill of any material hight—not a ravine of a depth worthy of remark—not a cavern, and the Wabash the largest stream within this scope, and the earth almost level, and thickly and heavily timbered, what mind can go down into the bowels of the earth one hundred and eighty feet beneath the firmly-rooted, aged oaks of the forest, and solve the mysteries these unfolded?

"You may be aware that this is the last sailing point next to the South Pole. Beyond this no vessel ever sails, and human footsteps are never seen. It is perpetual winter—snow every month in the year. The islands are naked of trees and bush and very little soil—high mountains and hills of volcanic rock over nine-tenths of the surface. Nothing of the grain kind is raised—no seed time or harvest. There are no animals, except wild horses and cattle.—Foxes and rabbits have been brought here and increased—much larger than those in the United States. No snakes, frogs, flies, spiders, bed-bugs or insects of any kind. Too wind blows all the time—often so strong that you cannot look out. The population, all told, does not exceed three hundred on all the Islands, and are very poor. This is only a harbor for wrecks. Expenses are very high and living poor—so comforts of life whatever. Board and lodging, annually, $520. I'll come home the first opportunity. I am distant from New York twelve thousand miles by sea. My voyage to my post of duty occupied one hundred and five days. I am thirty days sail from Rio de Janeiro, two thousand five hundred miles beyond Chili and Peru, and six hundred miles off Cape Horn.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1870.

WARREN COURT.

It is so convenient to get to Warrenton, and we are so kindly and hospitably treated when we go there, that, notwithstanding the admonitions of Dr. Yates, we returned there on Monday last, to see what figure Judge Watts would cut among the most refined and intelligent people of the State. The neat and elegant appearance of the people was in such singular and striking contrast with the slouchy appearance of his Honor, that the effect was to make his grossness look more greasy.

Justus Garland (colored) remarked to the negroes, as his Honor walked into the Court House, "There goes Greasy Sam; he can't be much of a Judge, for he don't look like it. I traveled with Young Roanoke, in Martin County, where the Judge lives; he weren't counted much of a lawyer; he was a tar burner that kept hounds to ketch runaway negroes."

We did not hear his Honor's charge to the Grand Jury; however, he did not charge them as he did in Wake, that no one was to inform them of crime except through the solicitor. There were only twenty cases on the civil docket, and seventy on the State docket. But one capita case, Ann Reeks, a woman of color, who was charged with the murder of a little child of Rev. Mr. Reeks. The child left the house with a biscuit in its hand for Ann, the nurse, and was found in the garden with its skull broken. Ann was arrested and committed, but escaped from jail, changed her name, and has been living in the county for over three years, in different families.

She was recently discovered, re arrested, and committed to jail again. Her case was continued until the next term of the Court.

The resident lawyers of Warren are Hon Wm. Eaton, late Attorney General, W. J Montgomery, E. A. Plummer, and Charles Spruill. From Granville were Col. Edwards, W. W. Jones, and W. M. Sneed. From Franklin, Capt. Joseph J. Davis, and W. K. Barbath. From Halifax, W. H. Day. From Wake, Hon. B F. Moore, Gen. Cox, Fab. Busbee, J. B. Batchelor, and Governor Bragg.

We have seldom seen such a turn out of the sovereigns as there was on Tuesday of Court. We spoke on that day to a very large and attentive assemblage of whites and blacks, not one of whom, like Dr. Yates, expressed his horror at our want of moderation. In fact we put on as much moderation as we could command, when contemplating the ruined condition of the country and the character of the men who had wrought its ruin.

We met with many friends whose acquaintance we made twenty years ago at Shocco and Jones' Springs. We met the old proprietor of the last named place on the Court green, and enjoyed a conversation which he and others held with Oscar, the old colored barber, of Raleigh. We know it would have done the heart of Judge Watts good if the gentlemen of the county had given him such welcome and greeting as they did their old friend Oscar. We learned from the unreserved conversation to which we listened, that Mr. Jones was eighty four, and Oscar seventy. Oscar ran the first hack or omnibus between Warrenton and Shocco Springs. He was born a slave and belonged to Dr. Alston of Warren. In 1831, Judge Daniel on the Bench, Hon. Weldon N. Edwards filed a petition in Warren Court for the emancipation of Oscar. In presenting the petition, Mr. Edwards spoke kind words in behalf of Oscar; the Judge heard the petition, endorsed the kindly words spoken by Mr. Edwards, and added to them. The manumitted slave resolved he would never act so as to forfeit the good character given him by the Court, and right faithfully has he kept the resolution. In 1844 when he was a slave, Oscar was as inconsiderate as the majority of the Judiciary in North Carolina; he was so thoughtless as to get drunk in public; unlike the Judiciary, he did not repeat it; one drunk was enough for Oscar nor has he taken a drink from that day to this.

Oscar accumulated a handsome fortune, has been for many years, and is now, a member of the Episcopal Church, in good standing. Wherever known he is respected for his integrity and Christian virtues.

We beg pardon for making it public that uncle Oscar, in 1814, was in a judicial condition; we mention it for the benefit and imitation of the Judiciary now.

We saw Beauregard, the old race horse, sold in the street at public sale, for $106. Col. Wharton J. Green was the purchaser. The old racer has a humane master who will see him well cared for. The Colonel owned Beauregard once before. If the old racer could talk, we have no doubt he would express as much joy in retiring to his old stall, as Judge Reade did in returning to the Union or "going home," as he feelingly expressed it.

We saw Capt. Belcher, the oldest man of the turf in the United States, the same whom we interviewed at the Henderson Fair. The Captain was looking remarkably well for one of his age.

Among the brethren of the Press, was Furman, of the Ridgeway Press, and Spruill, of the Gazette.

We saw the "last of the Romans," Hon. Weldon N. Edwards, the friend and contemporary of Nathaniel Macon and the late Chief Justice Ruffin. Mr. Edwards was looking well for one who carries such weight of years. We know Grant and Holden cannot make the old statesman as happy in the old Union as Col. Green can the old racer, Beauregard, in his old stall.

This county, the birth place of Macon, Edwards, Alston and Eaton, named in honor of the first great martyr to American liberty, has Watts to hold its Courts, Holden to execute, and three negroes to make its laws! "Gods! what a fall is here, my countrymen."

We beg Dr. Yates to excuse us for seeming neglect of him, Hand friends, Pike and Littlefield. We go from Warren to Mount Airy and Surry Court. We go by special invitation, and when we return, the Doctor and his friends shall have the notice which they all so richly merit.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

Adjourned.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, March 4, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

MEMORIAL.

By A. H. Galloway, sen., from certain citizens of Lincoln township in the county of New Hanover, protesting against a division of said county. Referred.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Barnes: Bill to authorize the town Constable of Wilson to collect arrears of taxes. Referred.

By Mr. Martindale: Bill to incorporate the Independent Telegraph Company and for other purposes, the rules were suspended in order to put the bill on its passage. After some discussion it was laid on the table.

By Mr. Smith, of Wilkes: Resolution to rescind the resolution appointing the investigating Committee composed of Messrs. Phillips, Bragg and Scott. The preamble says the Committee was appointed in opposition to the expressed views of Senators and without precedent.

Mr. Graham moved that the Senate do not entertain the resolution.

The President said he desired to make a statement before further proceedings were gone into. The preamble of the resolution assert d what was not so. It was not true that the President of the Senate made the appointment without precedent. He had information that the Committee would be ready to make a report in a few days, consequently the expenditures incurred by the investigation could not amount to much over what had already been expended or incurred, and ruled that the motion of the Senator from Orange was in order.

Mr. Robbins said the motion was a proper one; the Senate should not receive a resolution which was an attack on its presiding officer. He thought the appointment was judicious and wise; the Committee were composed of high-toned honorable gentlemen; men of strict integrity; men who would do right under all circumstances, and the President of the Senate will be sustained by all honest men in rising above the partizan, instead of having his motives impugned as this resolution proposes to do.

Mr. Welker (Republican) said he was not certain but that the resolutions were out of order, as a similar proposition was voted down on yesterday. He thought the objections to this Committee came rather too late in the day. At first he was disposed to think that the Chair had transcended his powers in going outside of the Senate to appoint the Committee, but upon reflection he was now ready to sustain the Chair in the action, and heartily approved of his selection. He believed the Committee was composed of honorable gentlemen, who would do their duty honestly and fearlessly. He could not see the necessity for interfering with them now, they are at work. He hoped the friends of the resolution would not anticipate the report before it is made, fearing that something wrong will be exposed and thinking to cover it up by abolishing the Committee.

Mr. Love said he hoped the resolution would not be received by the Senate. If the proposition had been made in the earlier part of the session when he introduced the resolution to raise the Committee; probably he might have voted for it; because, at that time, he felt that the original design of the resolution was about to be thwarted by the appointment of the Chair, he felt, at the time, that the Chair was governed by party feeling in refusing to put him (Mr. Love) the introducer of the resolutions, on the Committee, consequently he was chaffed at the seeming rebuke of the Chair; but he was now glad to have the opportunity to explain this matter and thank the President of the Senate for making the appointment he did. He was proud to say that that officer, in making the appointment, did so with an eye single to the interests of the State, and, that party prejudice did not influence him. He fully endorsed the appointment and did not think a better Committee could have been selected. The object of the resolution was to suppress what the people of the State desired to know, and the Senate should refuse to entertain it.

Mr. Smith, of Wilkes, (Rep.) said when he introduced the resolution it was not his intention to reflect upon the President of the body. But he (the President) knew himself that there were a number of Senators who were disappointed at the appointment he made, and that the appointment was made contrary to their wishes. The Committee had been appointed some time, and he could not see the reason why they have not reported before or why they do not report. The Legislature expected to adjourn soon, probably in a few days, and it was not their intention to adjourn and leave that Committee at work in their absence. Littlefield and Swepson had been here for a week and were ready to make a report or to go before the Committee, yet they were not summoned. Swepson had seen proper to go away, he did not know the cause, but the Republican swindler, (as he is called,) Littlefield, is still here holding his ground, he wanted to know if the Committee was to sit until Swepson returned. It should not be allowed to do so. It should be abolished at once.

Mr. Lindsay (Republican) said he could not glean from the remarks of the Senator from Wilkes what was really his object, as Hamlet said to the ghost, "thou comest in such a questionable shape I will speak to thee." He supposed the object desired to be attained by the adoption of the resolution, was to cover up the fraud and corruption which had been practiced upon the honest unsuspecting people of North Carolina. He was not surprised that the Senator was opposed to the Committee and wanted to abolish it. But the people of North Carolina had some rights which their servants, the Senate should respect, they demand this investigation, the people of my district who pay more tax in one year than that of the Senator from Wilkes in probably five, demand it, and they will not be satisfied until it is a thorough investigation. He was astounded that such a proposition should be made in the Senate of North Carolina. He had kept his opinion in reference to these matters to himself. But it was a notable fact, that when the men who are suspected most of being implicated in these dishonest transactions arrive in Raleigh, as soon as they get here there is a hue and cry to abolish this Committee. Now they begin to investigate, it must be abolished. Why is it so? Need I tell the Senate? No, it is not necessary because there is an answer to that question in the breast of each Senator. In addition all this there is a clause in the resolution impugning the motives of the presiding officer of the Senate, who has discharged his duties faithfully, honestly and impartially which is conceded by all parties. Yet this little contemptible concern emanating from the dark regions of Wilkes county is brought forward here to reflect on that officer. The Senator from Wilkes and his colleagues may do all they can to smother and cover up this report, there is a day not far distant when it will be cleared up. This Senator from the beginning has been at the head of the opposition in this investigation, I do not say that he is implicated in these dark and disgraceful transactions, but his course on this subject and especially to day, certainly is calculated to make that impression.

Mr. Smith, of Wilkes, said the Senator from Rockingham, had intimated that he (Smith) was a party to the alleged fraud and swindling. He desired to correct that impression, he had nothing to do with it, he was as honest as the Senator or any other man. He was opposed to the investigation Committee on the ground that there was another means of finding out and punishing public corruption, and he dared that policy adopted, he was not willing to throw his keeping into the hands of political enemies. Charges of fraud and corruption were made at the last session, a Smelling Committee was appointed and they smelt out $20, and he believed that would be the upshot of this Committee. He was opposed to having his party kicked about in this manner from Dan to Beersheba, when nothing was proven against them, and he did not believe that any corruption could be shown or proven.

Mr. Jones, of Mecklenburg, said it was evident to every Senator on the floor who had listened to the remarks of the Senator from Wilkes, that it was utterly impossible for him to divest himself of the partizan. He stood in his place to protect no party or shade of guilt. The Senator asked the question why the Committee had not reported? the reason was evident to every one who had noticed the proceedings of this General Assembly, when resolution after resolution was voted down looking to a full and fair investigation of this whole subject. Why have they not been convicted because Senators on this floor the Senator from Wilkes foremost in the ranks have continually done all they could to trammel this investigation, and now when there is a prospect to get a full report of these swindling transactions they come forward again with a proposition to abolish the Committee and cut off the very last hope, here on the very eve of adjournment when no other Committee can be raised. The main intent and object of this resolution is to allow these men to go abroad into the world and retain their ill-gotten gains. All of them irrespective of party who have been engaged in these infamous transactions should be brought to trial and to justice.

Mr. Davis, desired to ask the Senator.—If he was not aware that there existed in the other branch of the General Assembly a Committee of the Whole who could investigate those matters.

Mr. Jones said he was are that such machinery was in existence, and he was also aware that it was too cumbersome to accomplish the object it was raised for, the Senator from Montgomery knew it also, and those who were opposed to this investigation rejoiced when that policy was adopted, and the friends of truth and justice have always regretted that said Committee was raised. He thought the resolution came with bad grace from the Senator from Wilkes when his own constituents are holding public meetings, denouncing this fraud and demanding investigation.

Mr. Graham said it had been insinuated by the Senator from Wilkes that the Democrat (alluding to Swepson) had run away from the investigation and the Republican (Littlefield) had held his ground. He was not aware before that Swepson was a Democrat, and was under the impression that he was not, if he (Swepson) voted at all in the last Presidential election it was his impression that he voted for Grant, if he was not a Republican it was possible he belonged to the third party movement, however, this was not a party question, and he regretted that the Senator from Wilkes had dragged party into the discussion. If the resolution he introduced in the early part of last session had been adopted this whole matter would have been cleared up and the guilty made to suffer. He did not think the resolution was worthy of so much discussion, and hoped the Senate would dispose of it as he proposed.

Mr. Forkner said while he might be ever so much opposed to the resolution. The Senate had heretofore entertained resolutions of various character that came before it, and out of courtesy to the mover he should vote against the motion not to entertain it.

Messrs. Brogden and Jones, of Wake, made similar statements and the motion of Mr. Graham was voted down.

Mr. Smith arose to a question of privilege and said, that some of his remarks had been construed as casting a reflection on the Senator from Rowan, he desired to disclaim such intention, and believed the Senator to be an honorable gentlemen, and a man of strict integrity, and he was very sorry such a construction should have been placed on his remark.

Mr. Love demanded the previous question on the passage of the resolution, which was voted down.

Mr. Brogden moved to amend the resolution by striking out the clause reflecting on the President of the Senate, which was adopted.

Mr. Robbins said he wondered if the object of amending the resolution was to get it in such a shape that it would pass? He thought it looked very much like it. He said it signified nothing to the Republican or Democratic party, if there was a scoundrel who called himself after their party, unless after it was proven that he was a scoundrel, that such party upheld and endorsed him; then the party becomes responsible and not without. But the argument of the Senator from Wilkes, seems to be, we will sustain our swindlers and you must sustain yours. We claim none of them, and it is to be hoped that no party does. There is one thing certain, the swindler does not care for party, he is entirely for himself. Senators, cast aside this partizan feeling and speak as North Carolinians. In the name of the State. That we do not recognize scoundrels because they call themselves by our party name. They are for nobody's party. I can prove that the Republicans you have trusted with these appropriations are the very men who have stabbed the party who gave them place. You placed this money into their hands. You thought they were honest. The contractors in the Western part of the State and the poor laborers that worked on the Road trusted them, you and they have been deceived and yet, there are men, Senators on this floor who have moved to amend this resolution for the purpose of passing it. If it could only pass, it would be the very last blow necessary to bury Republicanism in this State. The man that votes for this resolution, say this investigation shall not be made; the people shall not know what was done with the $16,000,000, and he votes to hide himself behind the hills and mountains from the scorn and contempt of an indignant and outraged people. They will place him beside the swindler where he will belong. He could not understand how any one would attempt to amend the resolution to make it passable; it was unamendable, and the offence would be unpardonable. Pass it, and I can kill the Republican party so dead on the stump with it, that it will be forgotten that there ever was such a party. I want to kill your party, but I prefer doing it some other way. I do not want to be compelled to kill it by showing up your villainy—but pass the resolution, and you place the club of Hercules in the hands of the Democratic party, and we will smash the life out of the Republican party in less time than you are doing it. I appeal to you—who talk about your party swindlers to help us repudiate them all, let us cast them out as the Angels did Satan from the battlements of Heaven into hell—into the hell of infamy and corruption.

Mr. Welker said, before this bum listing act is performed, he desired to utter a few more words of warning to the Senate. As he believed it was a foregone conclusion that the resolution would pass. It was so decided in secret conclave last night, 19 Senators had pledged themselves to vote for it. He was apprised of the fact though he was not present, and at some time, if he lived the people of the State should be informed in regard to it. He represented a republican constituency who were honest, and who would brand that resolution and its supporters as infamous, and when it is passed it will sound the dissolution of the Republican party in this State. He appealed to republicans, North Carolinians, whose interests are here, to vote against the proposition.—He thought it was surprising that the mover of this resolution, the man who drew it up, would sit quietly in his seat and not utter a word in its defence, when another party is put forward to introduce it. The reason of it was, he was ashamed of it, and had not the boldness here in the face of the Senate to argue in favor of his own production. Pass this resolution Senators, and you have severed the Republican party.

Mr. Forkner said he was not prepared to vote on the resolution and moved that its further consideration be postponed until the 10th inst.

Mr. Jones of Wake said he had always opposed these Committees because he did not believe they would accomplish any good, and a great deal of time had been consumed by them, he thought, unnecessarily. He would vote to abolish this Committee before the adjournment of the Legislature, but at the present time preferred postponement. Another objection he had to the Committee was, that there was a member of it, who was so constituted, that he did not believe he could do a political opponent justice, in other words he did not believe he could get justice if he were summoned before him; the partizan feelings of that gentleman were so strong He thought he was a gentleman and an honest man nevertheless, yet he was so constituted he could not help it.

Mr. Graham said the people of North Carolina would hear with surprise that Thos. Bragg, Sam'l Phillips and Wm. Scott who have taken an oath to investigate this subject impartially, have violated that oath or will not do a political opponent justice. The Senator from Wake will find it a tough task to make the people of this State believe any such statement. You may use every means in your power Senators to defeat this investigation, but it will come, the House has already passed a similar resolution, to sustain this investigation. So you will accomplish nothing by passing this unless you intend to sustain the man against whom the charge has been made on this, floor, that he had fed and clothed Senators.

Mr. Jones, of Wake, desired to explain what he meant by his allusions to the Committe, he certainly meant nothing offensive to the Committee, he believed they were all honorable men, but there was one of them that was so constituted by nature that under certain circumstances he could not control his prejudice.

Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg said the remark of the Senator from Wake was a direct intimation that the judges he had assisted in electing could not do justice.—to a political opponent on trial if they are so constituted by nature there is no safety in a Court of Justice.

Mr. Lindsay said about the middle of the night there was a drunken revel assembled at the National Hotel and Littlefield was in the midst when 19 Senators pledged themselves to vote for the resolution. The trail must be covered up, the scent was getting too hot, something must be done to put a stop to this investigation. He would like for some of these 19 who were present at that drunken revel, to state, if there was not some money promised, or something else valuable for these votes, he had a reason for thinking so.

Mr. Whiteside moved the indefinite postponement of the resolution.

Mr. Hayes called the previous question which was sustained and the resolution was rejected by the following vote:

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beall, Cherry, Flythe, Forkner, Graham, Hawkins, Jones of Mecklenburg, Lindsay, Love, Mason, Melcher, McLaughlin, Murphy, Robbins, Scott, Shoffner, Welker, White and Whiteside.—20. (Democrats in italic.)

The Chair was about to give the casting vote in the negative when Messrs. Beeman and Jones of Wake, changed their votes to the negative.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, March 4, 1870.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Durham said that the Chairman of the Special Committee on Investigation, was particularly desirous of examining Gen. Littlefield to day, therefore, he (Durham) moved that the order summoning Littlefield before the House to day be rescinded and that the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole be directed to summon Mr. Littlefield to appear to-morrow at 12 o'clock. Carried.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Justice: A resolution holding [illegible] except Saturday. Lies over.

By Mr. Hodnett: A bill in favor of the Sheriff of Cass ll county. Referred.

By Mr. Malone: A bill to provide for a specific lien by contract and for other purposes. Ordered to be printed and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Seymour wanted to know something about what had become of the summons issued for the appearance of certain Railroad Presidents, returnable this morning.

Mr. Pou, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, replied that the acting Sergeant-at-arms of the House had served a summons upon Gen. Littlefield but could not find Mr. Swepson.

Mr. Seymour then moved that an alias summons be issued for the appearance of Swepson, returnable on Wednesday next.—Carried.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill to be entitled an act to raise revenue. The bill was discussed section by section.

In schedule B, section 6, which provides that on each exhibition of spirit-rappings or other device, by whatever name called, which professes to reveal communications from the spirits of the living or dead for profit, there shall be a tax of ten dollars.

(Here a theological debate of about two hours duration arose, during which the creed and doctrine of every denomination was discussed at length, without any one being converted.)

The motion of Harris of Wake, col., to strike out section 6, was put to a vote and was adopted by a vote of yeas 43, nays 32.

Pending a discussion upon section 11, schedule B, Mr. Pou moved to postpone the matter under discussion.

In support of his motion, Mr. Pou said that the Senate was now debating a proposition to abolish the investigating Committee, consisting of Messrs. Bragg, Phillips and Scott; whether it would be done he did not know, but in case it should, he wished to forestall such action by the adoption of a resolution by this House making it (the Committee) a Committee of the House. He appealed to every honest man, who wished to have these swindlers brought to the public, to support him in this movement.

He had been informed by the Chairman of the Committee that the summons for Messrs. Littlefield and Swepson, had been placed in the hands of the Sheriff of this county, on the 22d of February last, &c.

Mr. Durham hoped that the motion to postpone would prevail, and that the rules would be suspended and Mr. Pou's resolution adopted. The House was pledged to investigation and the Senate too was pledged to it. Was it not strange that as soon as two of the most important witnesses appeared, (though one had since run or gone away,) that there should be an effort in the Senate to abolish the Committee? He heard on the floor of the Senate, a Republican Senator declare that 19 Senators met privately, last night, and resolved to abolish this Committee. He declared that the action of these Senators showed plainly that they were participes criminis, and if he knew them he would denounce them by name. If his information was correct, he would not hesitate to denounce this as a bold stroke by men deeply implicated in these swindles, to defeat a thorough and effective investigation, &c.

Mr. Pou's motion to postpone was put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. Pou then offered his resolution (which is in substance the same as the one adopted by the Senate raising the Committee, only making the Committee a House one also.)

Mr. French was opposed to such action on the part of the House.

Mr. Pou offered a proviso that the Committee shall continue their sittings from day to day, until a report is made and not adjourn for more than two days at one time.

Mr. Pou called the previous question, and the call was sustained by the following ballott:

NAYS.—Messrs. Foster, French, Gunter, Hayes, Hilliard and Lasin.

The Proviso was then adopted.

The question then recurred upon an amendment offered by Mr. French of which previous notice had been given. The amendment reads as follows: Provided further, That the Investigation Committee, consisting of Messrs. Phillips, Bragg and Scott, are directed to report their proceedings on the 11th inst., up to that date. The amendment was put to a vote and adopted, yeas 71, nays 18.

The question recurring upon the resolution it was adopted by a vote yeas 88, nays 0.

By Mr. Durham: A bill to incorporate the Shelby and South Carolina Railroad Company. Referred.

By Mr. Sinclair: A bill to authorize the Commissioners of Robeson county to build a bridge over Lumber River. Referred.

Adjourned.

H. Lebermann, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

POSTPONED, the Ladies Concert and Tableaux exhibition, that was to have come off at Tucker Hall last night.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The first quarterly meeting for Raleigh City Chapel will be held to-day and to-morrow. Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, P. E., will conduct the services, preaching to-day at 11 o'clock, and to-morrow at 11, A. M., and 7, P. M.

NOTES ON THE SENATE PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY.

The last dying effort to screen the swindlers who have robbed the State and tramped her credit, was made by their friends in the Senate yesterday.

On Tuesday night a Radical caucus was held and over a hundred dollars worth of Champaign drunk at it is said, Littlefield's expense. At this caucus nineteen Radical Senators pledged themselves to vote for a resolution disbanding the Senate investigating Committee.

Mr. Smith of Wilkes introduced the resolution yesterday morning, though it is said Sweet got it up and its discussion occupied the session. It was during this discussion that the facts given above come to light.

The resolution was opposed in short but scathing addresses by Messrs. Robbins, Welker, Graham, Love, Jones of Mecklenburg and Lindsay. Various efforts were made to stave off a vote, but about 2 o'clock the previous question was moved and the vote stood 20 to 20; but as it was known the President of the Senate would vote against the resolution, Messrs. Beeman and Jones of Wake changed their votes, making it 18 to 22.

The names of those who thus gave their votes for a measure that every one understands was calculated, and, no doubt, intended to screen those accused of swindling the State from exposure and accountability, are on record, and to day and fifty years from to-day, they will be mentioned with scorn and contempt.

PARTY PREJUDICE.

During the discussion on the resolution to set aside the investigating committee, in the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Jones of Wake said, in substance, that he believed that one of the committee of investigation, owing to party prejudice, could not do a political opponent strict and impartial justice. He believed they were all "honorable gentlemen," but, unconsciously to himself, the gentleman alluded to would lean in his judgment. While he was making the remark we could not help thinking of a couplet of Pope's, very applicable, though on a different subject:

"Inconstant husbands knew their own defect,

The insinuation was as unjust as it was uncalled for, and Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg, and Maj. Graham, both characterized it as it deserved. Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg gave the author of it a pretty hard hit, saying, if there were any real grounds for the remarks of the gentleman from Wake, then the honor, lives and property of the people of the State were in jeopardy at the hands of a partisan Judiciary who, according to the views of Mr. Jones of Wake, cannot shake off the imperfections of human nature sufficiently to act impartially, even under oath.

ADDENDUM.—Our report of the Senate proceedings of yesterday necessarily does not give all the incidents of the passage between Mr. Smith and Mr. Robbins, because some of it was unofficial. The matter was as follows:

In his speech, Mr. Smith made an indirect insinuation against Mr. Robbins. As soon as he did so, Mr. Robbins, sitting in his seat not far away, promptly denounced him as "a scoundrel," in emphatic terms two or three times. The gavel of the President stopped the thing just then. But it was evident that trouble would ensue when the Senate should adjourn.

Shortly afterwards, Mr. Smith sent a friend to Mr. Robbins to apologize and beg his pardon. But Mr. Robbins refused to listen to anything of the kind unless made publicly to the Senate.

Mr. Smith then rose and said he was "sorry he had made the remark, and he desired to retract and apologize for it unreservedly, and he hoped the Senator from Rowan would forgive him, as he regarded that Senator as a perfect gentleman and a man of unblemished honor and integrity."

Mr. Robbins said he "accepted the retraction and apology of the Senator from Wilkes, and was glad that he had made it." The matter was then dropped.

[From The Evening Commonwealth Feb. 19.]

BALDWIN THE GREAT CLOTHIER OF BROADWAY.—There is a clothier named Baldwin, at the corner of Canal and Broadway, who has long been known to the business public as one of the most successful men in his trade; whilst his many intimate friends declare, with real enthusiasm, that he is all this, and a good deal more, and that, who so trades with him will trade with a just and fair dealing man, and never regret that they commenced with him.

We have just seen his circular, JUST IN TIME in which he has set forth the very superior garments which he has ready for exhibition to his customers. We advise all who care for the newest fashions, at the cheapest possible rates, to give Mr. B. an early call, and make him their family merchant in future. They may be quite sure that he will honor every word we have said about him, and show to them other good qualities which we have foreborne to mention in so public a notice.

[From the Advertiser.]

WARWICK, ORANGE CO., N. Y., Feb. 24.

Just in Time.—"Baldwin the Clothier," sends his Bible object [sic] of wit, sharp sayings and fashion news, which it is exceedingly different not to read clearly through, and which it is impossible to read through without being convinced that Baldwin's is the place to buy clothing.

AN Act, declaratory of the cases to which an act entitled "an act concerning the settlement of the estates of deceased persons" being chapter one hundred and thirteen of the acts of one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight and sixty nine is applicable and as to what estates are required to be settled according to its provisions, now, to settle these doubts and to prevent unnecessary litigation, the General Assembly of North Carolina do enact.

SEC. 2. If any person prior to the ratification of this act, shall have bona fide administered any estate or any part of the estate of any deceased person whereof original administration was granted prior to said first day of July, under the said act of 1868 '69, he shall not be deemed guilty of a devastavit.

EXTENSIVE CONFLAGRATION IN MARION—A MAN LOSES HIS LIFE IN THE FLAMES.—An extensive conflagration occurred in Marion, S. C., on the W. & M. R. R. late Monday night, or early yesterday morning, which destroyed some eight or ten houses and stores, occupying an entire square. The fire originated in the store of a Mr. Clarke, and soon spread itself with fearful rapidity to the surrounding buildings. The Court House near by caught several times from the flames, but was extinguished through the exertions of the citizens. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, and has laid almost desolate the little town of Marion, destroying the principle business portion and causing a loss of about $40,000. This was covered by insurance to the amount of about $25,000.

But this loss is as nothing compared with a sad occurrence during the progress of the fire by which Mr. I. Iserman, an old citizen of Marion, lost his life in his humane exertions to rescue a lady from the flames.—Believing that a female was asleep in the upper story of one of the building then on fire, he rushed up the stairs to save her. In reaching the third story he found that the lady was not there; then attempting to return he found escape impossible from the smoke and flames which rendered the whole stairway impassible. Rushing to a window, he was seen by the crowd below who cried out to him to jump to the ground, and he in return begged them to interpose something to break the violence of his fall.—Just at that moment a keg of powder in the lower floor of the building, occupied as a store, exploded and shivered the whole structure, and the unfortunate man was lost in the burning ruins. The next morning only his bones were found among the smouldering embers where the house had been. This sad event has naturally cast a gloom over the whole community of Marion, and coupled with the pecuniary loss causes great distress.—Wil. Journal.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Judge Bustead, of Ala., departs to-morrow to open the regular term of his Court.

The Territorial Committee reported unanimously [illegible] to the Committee of the Whole.

HOUSE.—The Committee on Ways and Means were directed to enquire into the expediency of exempting brick makers from the manufacturers tax, and exempting from revenue paving quarrying blue stone.

A resolution was introduced favoring a heavy reduction on fruit brandy.

The tariff bill, after a struggle, was taken up. Brooks made an hour's speech which is much praised.

Butler offered the Georgia bill as a privileged question. Farnsworth objected, and it was unauthorized by the Reconstruction Committee to make a report.

The Speaker said the difference between the gentlemen was a point of veracity, not of order. Butler said, I am responsible. The Speaker said he must recognize the chairman.—Butler refused to be catechised by his colleague. Pending the squabble the House adjourned.

A bill was introduced enabling the Leavenworth, Lawrence and Galveston Railroad to extend a branch of their road.

The bill changing the U. S. Supreme Court circuits, was considered. Wood offered an amendment for dispense with the requirement that a Judge shall be a resident of the circuit or which he is appointed. He [illegible] urged that the President should be allowed to make his selections from the nation at large and not be limited to localities, where, as in southern circuits, it might be difficult to find a man whose loyalty was of a character to warrant his connection to the supreme bench.

A resolution calling for the names of the States ratifying the 15th amendment was adopted.

A bill for the collevate of the cost of removing obstructions from Baton Rouge, La., was reported with amendment.

The funding bill was considered without action up to adjournment.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulterations, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astral" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors.

No Life Insurance Company in the United States offers superior advantages for insurance or investment, than the St. Louis Mutual. It is managed by gentlemen of the highest capacity and standing and it enjoys the largest confidence of those acquainted with Insurance Companies.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and the investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable after two annual payments have been made.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, as the profits of its business are paid not to stockholders but to the policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.

IT IS THE PIONEER COMPANY OF THE SOUTH, in all the new and liberal features of Life Insurance, presenting advantages not offered by any other Company, note the following points.

1st. Low Rates of insurance, with a credit of one third, the Premium is a perpetual Loan.

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES P. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

VALENTINES—SOMETHING NEW.

Owing to the fact that some who have received Valentines wish to reciprocate, and others who have not, wish to send some, that they in turn may receive, Cupid will allow them to be sent during the entire month of February this year. And in order to assist in this accommodating arrangement, I have just opened a new lot of sentimental ones, which will be sold at half price.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44

*THE ÆTNA,	12,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 569 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,327 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
